State Board of Health Issues Its Bulletin for Month of November.

DIPHTHERIA IS PREVALENT

MORE THAN A THOUSAND CASES REPORTED TO SECRETARY.

There were 229 deaths in Utah during the month of November, according to the bulletin issued yesterday by the state board of health. Of this number Sait Lake county led with 133 deaths. Weber had 35; Utah, 31; Sanpete, 24; Sevier, 13; Summit 9; Juab, 15; Uintah, 7. The report shows that typhoid fever claimed 18; pneumonia, 39; scarlet fever and diphtheria, 8 each; tuberculosis, 7; measles, 4.

The bulletin shows that there were eleven additional deaths in October which were not reported in time for the previous bulletin. The report indicates that there were 1,151 cases of diphtheria on the 1st of the present month. During the month 149 cases of scarlet fever were reported, 147 of chickenpox. Twenty-two cases of smallpox were reported in the state during the month, but there were no deaths. There were fifty-five cases of whooping cough, with no deaths. None of the 147 patients suffering from chickenpox died of the disease.

Salt Lake county reported 596 cases of measles, with three of the four deaths. This county also had 48 cases of scarlet fever, 63 of diphtheria, 50 of typhoid fever and 24 of pneumomia. The bulletin shows that there were Juvenile Court Authorities Fear Adverse Influence on Morals of the Young.

The juvenile court commission is considering a strict supervision of the amusement halls and theatres which have sprung up in the city during the past year, and at a session held yesterday morning ways, and means of attaining this end were discussed. It was said that children are wont to frequent these places and to remain out late at night as a result. This leads to other worse forms of amusements, such as pool rooms and dance halls, and results in more work for the court of-

D. H. Christensen, superintendent of schools; Alma Clayton, truant officer, and Guardello Brown, chief probation officer, were present and expressed their views. The matter of a detention home was also discussed, and a determined effort will be made to have the

LOCAL SNOW IS PREDICTED

Forecast for Thursday Indicates a Change in Weather-Slightly Warmer Wednesday.

The prediction of the weather bureau for Thursday is that snow will fall. This prognostication is based on the presence of low pressure in this vicinity.
